

The DAT Minyan Invites the Community to a Scholar-In-Residence Weekend

Dr. David Shatz

Lecture Schedule

Shabbat Parshat Yitro
February 14, 2009

Shabbat Morning @ DAT (Davening begins 8:45am)

"The Jew in the Modern World: Reflections of Rabbi Soloveitchik."

Seudah Shlishit following Mincha (Davening begins 4:30pm) @ DAT

"Rabbi Soloveitchik's Approach to the Problem of Suffering."

Saturday night event presented by the Denver Academy of Torah

Sponsored by Monique and Robby Mogyoros, at the Mogyoros home

"Faith, Fate, and Folly: Astrology, Science and the Supernatural in Jewish Thought and Law."

Call (720)859-6806 to RSVP for this talk.

Dr. David Shatz is a Professor of Philosophy at Yeshiva University, editor of The Torah u-Madda Journal, and series editor of MeOtzar HoRav: Selected Essays of Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik. He has edited or authored twelve books and has published over sixty articles and reviews, dealing with both general and Jewish philosophy. Dr. Shatz, who was valedictorian of his Yeshiva College class, received semichah from the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary and his Ph.D with distinction from Columbia University. A former winner in the John Templeton Foundation Course Competition in Science and Religion, he will be featured in eight episodes of a PBS television series devoted to issues in religion, philosophy and science. He is a member of the Orthodox Forum Steering Committee, a board member of the Orthodox Caucus, a member of the Editorial Board of Tradition, and a Fellow of the Academy for Jewish Philosophy.

Thank You to Mark Brooks & Terry Samuel, Marc Cooper & Amity Cooper for sponsoring the weekend in memory of Mr. Joseph Samuel Z'L and Mr. Michael Cooper Z'L